Dear Gerry:

Many thanks for your note of October 2. I was sorry to have missed you during my recent rather hurried trip to Europe but I look forward now to having more time for travel and hope that we can get together either here or in Europe.

I cannot think of anything more pleasant than spending some days in [redacted] and Clover and I sincerely appreciate the invitation from Marie and you.

Clover joins me in messages to Marie, and looking forward to seeing you soon.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
